

Newsmakers

March 1, 1998

Dr. James DeCaro, dean of NTID, was honored in February by the Greater Rochester Metro Chamber of Commerce with a Civic Award for Education for his outstanding achievement in the education sector. These annual civic awards are the most prestigious recognition given by the Rochester community.

Dr. Christine Licata, associate dean of instruction at NTID, has been asked to serve as a senior associate for the American Association for Higher Education's New Pathways II Project: "Academic Careers for a New Century: From Inquiry to Practice." Licata will take a lead role for project initiatives dealing with post-tenure review and will continue to serve in her role as associate dean.