

RIT/Gallaudet weekend plans in Rochester

March 1, 2000

The annual RIT/Gallaudet Weekend takes place this weekend at Gallaudet University in Washington, D.C. Students from the two universities compete in various sporting events. Two events are scheduled at RIT, both free and open to the public, before the weekend.

BISON MASSACRE 2000

Thursday, March 30, 2000

8:00PM @ RHArcade The Bison Massacre is a strong NTID tradition where RIT/NTID students devour buffalo wings - which represent Gallaudet University's mascot: the bison. The remaining bones of the wings are boxed and mailed to Gallaudet University as a continuing joke.

PEP RALLY 2000

Friday, March 31, 2000

8:00PM @ Clark Gym Included in this year's Pep Rally are skits, both by various organizations and by members of the RIT/Gallaudet Weekend Committee, as well as cheers and free gifts.

For more information, go to <http://www.rit.edu/~btm9003/rgw/>.