

Deaf RIT swimmer succeeds in NCAA competition

March 1, 2000

Tara Nesbitt, 18, of Oakville, Ontario, Canada, ended her first collegiate season with two top 20 finishes at the 2000 NCAA Division III Women's Swimming Championships. In the 200-meter backstroke, the first-year social work student placed 18th in the nation, setting an RIT school mark in a time of 2:10.22. In the 100-meter backstroke, she placed 19th in a time of 1:00.50. For the season, Nesbitt swam to 26 first place finishes, set four new RIT women's swimming records, and was named RIT Athlete of the Week March 13, 2000.