

RIT success at the 1999 Winter World Games for the Deaf

March 1, 1999

The 1999 Winter World Games for the Deaf, held in Davos, Switzerland, have just concluded, and several RIT alumni and students participated.

Below are the results of RIT-related competitors.

Hockey: Canada Gold

USA Silver

Chad Broussard, first-year computer integrated manufacturing student from Milton, Ontario, played for the gold medal team.

The USA's silver medal-winning hockey team members included Robert Boope, construction technology student from Chicago, Michael Coppage, applied accounting student from Bloomington, Minnesota, Sean Dee, 1988 accounting graduate who now lives in Hartford, Connecticut, and Leonard Williams, 1979 business administration graduate who lives in Rochester, New York.

Women's Slalom

Bronze USA Nancy Bonura (briefly attended RIT)

Women's Super G

10th USA Nancy Bonura

Women's Downhill

Silver USA Nancy Bonura

Women's Giant Slalom

4th USA Janene Micheletti-Randall, imaging technology student

Women's Freestyle Snowboarding

Bronze USA Janene Micheletti-Randall

Men's Giant Slalom

9th USA Bill Loftus, 1995 applied accounting graduate

Men's Freestyle Snowboarding

10th USA Bill Loftus

Complete results can be found at

<http://www.deafnation.com/davos/index.html>