4) Cabinet Reports

President- Welcome to Spirit week! Had a meeting to talk about the registration system and changes have been made to make registration better.

GCCIS- is there any way to test the server to see if it will crash again?

President- yes, they have done load testing and have increased the number of slots available. They have done some tests like that. Feb 21st the emergency alert system will be in the works. We are moving forward with itunes university. We are starting to plan brick city festival. Finally, we are looking for two representatives to sit on the Eisenhardt committee and the curriculum committee.

Vice president- live well, eat well program. There are some incentives. We will move ahead with the program. The cabinet has decided to go through the impeachment process for the college of science senator. Next week the college of science senator will state his case; why he should keep his position and then the senate will vote on it.

Rep @ Large- denied Smash Heros Finest Fighting League. RIT Skeptics were put on hold. RIT Knights of Columbus was also put on hold. We would like to talk to the religion center. The CCL is doing an amazing job with club connection. All of the paper work will be available online. This is an awesome step.

Programming- we had 113 people apply for the scholarships. We need people to read them. This Friday from 3-5 and then Monday 2-6. At 4 today Spirit week starts. Inside your bag is your personal agenda. The camera that is in there, we would like you to take pictures of all the events you go to. We would like to put together a spirit week scrapbook. Tina and a few other people worked hard to put these together. This Thursday is town hall and I hope everyone will be there. Remember to RSVP to the scholarship dinner.
