Congratulations to two Department of Communication alumni as they initiate their careers.

Chester "CJ" Shellman (Professional & Technical Communication, '04) earned his master's degree in Childhood Education from St. John Fisher in 2007 and today begins his professional career for the Rochester School District at School #8 teaching first grade.

Samantha Mullen (PTC '08) just informed us that she's accepted a position with AEON Amity Corporation to teach English in Japan. More details will follow.
