28 August 2008

Kayla Zerby (Professional & Technical Communication, 2005) has moved from Washington, D.C. to Newport Beach, CA. While in the nation's capitol Kayla was a public relations professional at Hellerman Baretz. Recently relocated to California, she is now an account executive at Idea Hall, a Costa Mesa full service branding, public relations, marketing and interactive firm. Kayla's graduation photo appears on the inside front cover of the Department's Student Guide.

An e-newsletter published occasionally by the Department of Communication and distributed to students and their family, alumni, faculty and others who have expressed an interest in communication.
