I’m Mike Saffran with an RIT NEWSMINUTE for Monday, Jan. 28, 2008—week seven of winter quarter.

RIT today . . . Spirit Week continues

RIT this week . . .
- Tuesday, Jan. 29: Spring Quarter registration begins (through March 10)
- Wednesday, Jan. 30: Panel discussion: Take Back the NET, 7:30 p.m., Golisano College auditorium
- Thursday, Jan. 31: Thursday Night Cinema Series, featuring “Knocked Up,” 10 p.m., Ingle Auditorium
- Friday, Feb. 1: Winter Honors Colloquium: Arunas Chesonis, “It Isn’t Just Business, It’s Personal,” 11 a.m., Golisano College auditorium
  - Tailgate party, 5 p.m., Ritz SportsZone
  - Men’s hockey, versus American International, 7:05 p.m., Ritter Arena (same time Saturday)
  - Performing Artists Concert Series: Eastman Wind Ensemble, 8 p.m., Ingle Auditorium
- Saturday, Feb. 2: Groundhog Day
  - Annual Dodgeball Derby, 1-5 p.m., Student Life Center
  - WNBA star Sheryl Swoopes, motivational speech, “Being True to Yourself,” 5 p.m., Clark Gym
  - Gannett Lecture Series: The Flying Words Project, “Poetry in Motion,” 7 p.m., Webb Auditorium
- Sunday, Feb. 3: Super Bowl Party, 3 p.m.-midnight, SAU-Fireside Lounge and Clark Gym

This has been an RIT NEWSMINUTE.

Archive of previous podcasts and podcast transcripts available at: http://www.rit.edu/news/podcasts

© Rochester Institute of Technology. All Rights Reserved.