

TTY AIDS Hotline run by deaf RIT graduate

May 1, 1998

TTY-users who need more information about HIV and AIDS can call the TTY Service at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention, National AIDS Hotline. The hotline number is 1-(800)-AIDS-TTY (1-800-243-7889). CDC NAH is a free hotline service that is provided to English-speaking, Spanish-speaking, and TTY service callers. The TTY Service includes English, Spanish, and ASL dialogues. The service is run by Chad A. Ludwig, 1997 social work graduate, Senior Supervisor.

Chad can be reached at (919) 361-8454 TTY, (919) 361-4855 FAX, or chalud@ashastd.org (e-mail).
