

NTID performing arts presents A Sailor's Daughter

May 1, 1998

A SAILOR'S DAUGHTER written by Bonnie Meath-Lang and directed by Ray Fleming

A new, original play about the life of Marie Leneru (1845-1918), a French author/playwright who became totally deaf and had severe vision problems beginning at the age of 14, and her struggles against the backdrop of World War I.

Robert F. Panara Theatre

April 30-May 2 at 8:00 pm

May 8-9 at 8:00 pm

$5 students/seniors, $7 others

Call 475-6254 (v/TTY) for reservations or more information, or send e-mail to NTIDTIX@rit.edu.