

NTID Names Pranger as Senior Development Officer

May 14, 2001

Jill A. Pranger of Webster, has been named senior development officer at the National Technical Institute for the Deaf (NTID) at Rochester Institute of Technology (RIT).

Pranger will work with current NTID donors, as well as develop new relationships with community leaders, alumni, parents, friends, corporations and foundations to match donors' interests with institutional needs.

Previously, Pranger was corporate director of resource development for Planned Parenthood of the Rochester/Syracuse Region since 1997. Before that, she held fundraising positions with the Highland Hospital Foundation and the Simon School at the University of Rochester.

As a volunteer, Pranger serves as president of the Genesee Valley Chapter - Association of Fundraising Professionals and is chair-elect of Rochester Hearing and Speech Center.

Pranger received bachelor's degrees in science and in arts from Southern Methodist University in Dallas. She holds the designations certified fund raising executive (CFRE) and master teacher from the Association of Fundraising Professionals.
