A delegation of four RIT students – including two from the Department of Communication – attended PEN-International's Summer Leadership Institute, a week-long event held at Herstmonceux Castle, a 15th century fortress in East Sussex, England. In addition to participants from Japan, China and Russia, Christie Ong (Advertising & Public Relations) and David Spiecker (Professional & Technical Communication, '08) both participated in this the second biennial conference to develop leadership and advocacy skills.
