Deanna Kimbrel presents the results of her thesis research, "The Visual Analysis of Heterogeneous Gender Interactions: A Content Analysis of Popular Music Video" at 4 p.m. on October 7, 2008 in 12-1105. Ms. Kimbrel is a Communication & Media Technologies student.

Hip Hop cultured music videos have raised concern among our nation's leaders, parents and communities. This study focuses on nonverbal gender interactions in this genre of music videos. The study found men were portrayed as more dominant than women in the sampled music videos.

The public is invited to attend Ms. Kimbrel's presentation.
