9 October 2008

The 21st Annual Institute Public Speaking Contest begins October 20, 2008. This annual event, held every fall and spring quarter, has undergraduate students from across the Institute compete for $700 in prize money and the chance of oratorical greatness.

All you need to do is present a 6-8 minute informative speech on a topic of national or international importance. The time to register is now!

Registration closes Wednesday, October 15, 2008.

For all information about the event, go to www.rit.edu/speechcontest or contact Dr. Grant Cos, gccgpt@rit.edu.
