20 October 2008

Three members – two Professional & Technical Communication majors and one faculty – from the Department of Communication represented RIT at this year’s 66th Annual Convention of the New York State Communication Association. Held this past weekend in Kerhonkson, NY, Ms. Kimberly Reeb (PTC), Ms. Elissa Nyerges (PTC) and Dr. Susan Barnes attended the conference and each presented a scholarly paper.

Kimberly Reeb garnered a “Top Paper” award for her presentation entitled “Parent-Teen Communication About Dating Behavior”; Kimberly’s paper was an edited version of her Senior Thesis in Communication that she completed in Spring Quarter 2008.

Elissa Nyerges presented her paper entitled “When Fake Becomes Real: Getting Your News from The Daily Show.” And Dr. Barnes offered “Students’ Reactions to Second Life: A Course on Online Advertising.”

Congratulations Kimberly, Elissa and Susan.
