

Part-time Marketing Communication Position Available

Bruce A. Austin baagl@rit.edu

9 December 2008

A part-time marketing communication position with the Center for Imaging Science is currently available. The Center seeks a responsible person to assist them with the development of promotional brochures and posters, press releases, newsletters, annual reports and content to freshen their web site. In addition to being a great portfolio-builder, the position may qualify for a Co-op. Interested? Contact Professor Joe Pow, Associate Director, RIT College of Science: 475-7323 or pow@cis.rit.edu
