

Alum Returns to Campus as Communication Specialist

Bruce A. Austin baagl@rit.edu

22 January 2009

Rachel Pikus, a 2006 graduate of the Department's Professional & Technical Communication degree program, has accepted and begun a new professional position as Electronic Communications Specialist in RIT's Department of Development and Alumni Relations. Rachel's previous position was with the International Museum of Photography at George Eastman House where she coordinated public relations and member services. Congratulations, Rachel!