9 February 2009

Three communication courses being offered in Spring Quarter still have seats available. Communication Minors, Communication Concentrators as well as PTC, APR and Journalism majors might consider the following courses: Advanced Public Speaking (0535-503-70 or-71), Special Topics in Communication: Crisis Communication (0535-525-01, especially APR majors) and Principles of Advertising (0535-461-01).

Communication Concentrators and Minors should see Dr. Cos (gccgpt@rit.edu) and Communication Majors should see their academic advisors (or Dr. Scanlon, pmsgsl@rit.edu) for more information.
