20 April 2009

Alumni of the Department of Communication – Professional & Technical Communication, Advertising & Public Relations and Communication & Media Technologies majors – all gather at the Dark Horse Pub in Philadelphia Friday, 24 April from 6 to 8 p.m. Opportunity for professional networking is enhanced by also inviting Philadelphia-area RIT Marketing alums to the event.

This special event coincides with the 100th Annual Eastern Communication Association's conference at which no fewer than eight DOC students and alums are presenting their research. Join DOC faculty, currently enrolled DOC students and alumni for conversation and libation.
