Driscoll Named NTID Alumni Relations Director

January 31, 2007

Matthew Driscoll of Kettering, Ohio, has joined Rochester Institute of Technology's National Technical Institute for the Deaf as director of Alumni Relations. In this role, he will develop and implement programs to increase alumni involvement and support for RIT/NTID.

Driscoll, who received a bachelor's degree in Finance from RIT in 1994, most recently was Team Leader for the Communication Service for the Deaf Ohio Relay. He managed call center operations, coached relay operators on call procedures, and handled commendations and complaints. He received CSD's 2003 Circle of Excellence Award.

He also served as an investment products specialist for ING-Aetna Financial Services in Hartford, Conn.

Driscoll serves on the Dayton, Ohio, Community Services for the Deaf Advisory Board and the Deaf Awareness Committee Board.

NTID is the first and largest technological college in the world for deaf and hard-of-hearing students. One of eight colleges of RIT, NTID offers educational programs and access and support services to the 1,100 deaf and hard-of-hearing students from around the world who study, live, and socialize with 14,400 hearing students on RIT's Rochester, N.Y., campus.
